“ *Lynnice and I send our condolences to the Regular family and all connected families. Our hearts are overwhelmed. We can only imagine what you all are dealing with. We know that our words will not be able to comfort you. We are praying. That God will hold each of you close to his heart, surround you with his grace and hold you with his inexhaustible power. I pray that you will know that your emotions are given by God and they are natural and normal. I pray that you can experience God as a refuge and strength in this time of grief and trouble.
