“ *To the Family:
I offer condolences and Scriptural encouragement to you all. As you endure the sorrow of this difficult time, keep in mind that God has already made a provision to raise up ones sleeping in death. "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him. (1 John 4:9). Jesus encourages us: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me." (John14:1).*

“ *Karen and family,
When I have encountered death of my love ones and friends, I have found comfort in this simple but powerful saying " Absent from the body means presence with the Lord." I hope you can find comfort in those words too.

“ It's the little things, the small, everyday occurrences that you'll remember. The laughs, the stories, the smiles. And even though it seems like you can never recover from your loss, it is these very memories that will help push the pain away and bring back the smiles.

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Mr. Cornish. There are a few things in life that hurts as much as the death of a loved one. But it is at these times that we gain comfort from the "Father of Tender Mercies and the God of all comfort."-2 Cor 1:3,4. He comforts us with scriptures such as John 5:28,29, Rev 21:3,4 & Acts 24:14,15. Please read. Also for more on "What Hope for the Dead" please visit jw.org. Thanks.

“ My deepest condolences to the family. In this difficult time in your lives, may you find comfort and strength in God's word, the Bible. James 4:8 encourages: "Draw close to God and he will draw close to you."
