“ I interacted with Mimi several times over the last 20 years and every time she was sweet, gracious and one of the most stylish women I've ever met. I know she will be missed by all that knew and loved her. My prayers are with your family during this difficult time. Love, Heather Waites

“ My deepest condolences to the family. Mother Perry and I ushered together for years at Citadel of Hope. She was truly one of the sweetest people that I have ever known. I love the way she greeted and made everyone feel loved and welcomed. My prayers are with her family, church family, and friends.

“ Mother Perry was a joy to know. Always loving, smiling, a praiser, a mother, a Destiny pusher. I remember dancing and praising with her at the Citadel of Hope Cogic, every time I would visit Total Victory with Pastor Angelic, I knew she would greet me with love and a hug that only Mother Perry would. Accompanied by her tambourine! She will be missed. With love submitted by Elder Shaun Williams.

“ We honor the memory of Sister Thelma Perry. She taught us how to serve God’s house well. No matter her disposition, Sister Perry demonstrated excellence in family, business, and Church dealings. She exemplified what it meant to be a virtuous woman. Ms. Perry always saw the bright side of any situation. She was our first picture of a seasoned woman of class, elegance, and style. Her memory will forever be embedded in the recesses of our minds and heart. Our condolences to Jane, Kim and the entire Perry Family. Sister Perry has joined the “Great Cloud of Witnesses” (Heb. 12:1-2). For this we offer praise. Our best regards, The Foster Family 🙏
