“ My condolences to the family during this time of bereavement. My memories of "uncle Teddy" started back in Dallas, Texas during the 1070's. He was a fatherly figure to me and I almost became his son-in-law. Due to my success in life, he gave me the title "Lloyd's of London". He will be missed. (Lloyd S.)

“ Tim Smith and Family send our prayers of comfort and peace to Aunt Penni and the entire family of our Dear Uncle Ted. Uncle Ted is one of the last Patriarch’s of our family with my Dear Uncle Robert remaining. My Family and I share the same deep fondness that my Father Sidney Marvin Smith, Sr. had for his brother. Uncle Ted and my father shared a Bond that was more than just brotherly it was special to see and be a part of when they both were together and apart. As believers in the faith – we all know this is not the end but just a transition. Grace and Peace to all.
