“ To the family of Theresa Thomas:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I offer sincere condolences to the Thomas family. When a loved one falls asleep in death, we can gain comfort when we consider that "God sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. God's Word assures us: "Your dead ones will live....they will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. Jesus confirmed his role in this loving provision when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25.

“ To the Thomas and Armstead Families:
I share the loss and grief with you of my dear sorority sister and friend, Theresa "T." I am going to miss her but I have beautiful memories of the good times that we had together. "T" was such a loving and inspiring lady. She always had a positive word to uplift me when I was sad. I am happy that I had the opportunity to spend a few hours with her three weeks ago.

To Charles, Cherise, CJ and Theresa's siblings, I pray that God continues to give you strength for the days ahead. Continue to look to the hills for whence cometh your help; your help comes from the Lord.

With deepest Sympathy,

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family of Theresa Thomas. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ Dear Thomas Family and Friends,

We are very sorry to read of your loss and would like to send our sincere condolences for your loss. Though losing a loved one is never easy the holy Bible helps us to cope with our grief and sadness. At 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 our loving God Jehovah promises to comfort those in tribulation, assuring us that we are never alone in our sadness. We can also draw comfort from knowing that our loved ones are no longer in any kind of pain because the Bible tells us at Ecclesiastes 9:5 that the dead are conscious of nothing at all. We hope these bible truths have brought you a measure of comfort in your time of need.
