“ I would like to express sincere condolence to the survivors of my cousin Mr. Thomas Buggs, on behalf of the sons of his aunt, the late Mrs. Emma Drummond Johnson. We were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of Thomas—best known to all of us as “Mancy or Baits” because that is how our dear mother always referred fondly to him.

Thomas could do no wrong, and rightfully so, in the eyes of his Aunt Emma. He held a special place in her heart—not because he was one of the sons of her late brother Tom or because of his quiet, kind nature, but because of his melodious singing voice—of which she always wanted to hear at any family event or church service, and because of Thomas’ kindness and devotion to her, he never refused her requests. It is because of his gentle spirit that we will all sincerely miss him.

I will always remember him as such a kind and soft spoken man. He was my cousin by marriage. I never heard him raise his voice except to sing. Such a beautiful voice. When he would sing with A.L. Rogers, it was such a pleasure. He will certainly be missed by all who knew him. I will be praying for all the family.
