“ I was walking in the neighborhood today. Looking at your car parked, my heart broke all over again. 💔 I'm going to miss you and Blu, tremendously. I never got the chance to “pup seat”. For the rest of my life I will hear your voice whenever I'm planting in my front yard or cutting my grass. I will cherish our “life” conversations and the laughs we shared. I still wonder why you think I was “fake” cutting my lawn. 🙏 I'm going to miss you neighbor. Until next time💜

“ Mrs. Sharon my thoughts are with you and the family.

"In this journey of mourning, resilience is your compass, guiding you back to peace and strength. Prayer is a reminder that you do not walk alone; God's presence is a constant refuge, offering the resilience needed to move forward. Through prayer, you find the courage to face each day, and gradually, the waves become less daunting, the shore more visible. Let it be a source of strength and solace as you navigate the challenging path of grief."
