“ Tiffany was a truly loving person with an infectious smile. Although we worked together for only a short while, her genuine love for people was evident in her work. She loved God, and was dedicated to providing a great future for her son. I am saddened to hear of her passing. She brought such joy to everyone she came in contact with. I pray for Gods peace to be with her family now and in the coming years.

*Sincerely,
Crystal Reid*

“ Life can be very interesting, overwhelming, perplexing and beautiful all at the same time. I pray peace that surpasses all understanding and comfort in your time of need. I hope the milestones and memories shared will leave you with a smile over time.

She was 2 years ahead of me in high school, yet we still meshed and became friends. We drifted after she graduated high school, ran into each other at some college parties and reconnected when she moved to Georgia as I became a Georgia resident 6 years prior. I can't believe you're gone.

Rest well Tiff (my little fashionista!)

Love,

Wendy
