

Tiffany Nicole Porter

July 4, 1978 - May 5, 2022

Tiffany Nicole Porter was born on July 4, 1978, in Cleveland, Ohio. She was the first child of Pamela Parker. She departed this life on May 5th, 2022, at Northside Hospital Gwinnett.

Tiffany graduated from Belleville High School. After high school, she entered Hampton University where she studied music. After receiving her Bachelor of Music, she earned her Juris Doctor degree at Emory University while simultaneously earning her Master of Business Administration at Georgia State University.

She was a devoted mother of four, active church member of Life Church International, and reliable mentor. In addition to being an attorney, Tiffany was also a semi-pro football cheerleader, sports agent, and CourtTV analyst. She was the first black municipal court judge for the city of Duluth, and the first black Gwinnett County Tax Commissioner. Tiffany's contributions to the community were remarkable.

She was survived by her children, Brandon Brown, Nia Brown, Zoe Brown, and Tori Saunders; her mother, Pamela Parker; three sisters, Kurstie Parker, Kristie Parker, and Akira Pray; one brother, Sir Martell Parker; 2 aunts, April Parker and Aminah Akram; 1 uncle, Darren Jones, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
