“ I first met time at the Dekalb Courthouse when we were serving with Be The Bridge Ministry. We would pray with people inside. This epitomized Tim's heart for those in need. He had a huge heart for the incarcerated, because he knew what they were going through. He also introduced me to Kairos Prison Ministry, which has become a big part of my life. He didn't just talk the talk about helping those that the rest of society shunned, he, like Jesus, was a "friend of sinners" by visiting them within the walls of prison.
