“ From the Bivins family, we would like to send our condolences to Paula, Tims Mother and his entire family. Tim was like an older brother to me. We came south together in 1995 from Virginia with just a car packed with all the belongings that we could carry. We went through so much together trying to get started over again. Tim made me so proud with his perseverance and never give up mentality. I could go on and on because I was there to see this great transformation. This has been very tough for me like anyone else who had a close personal bond with Tim. My brother you are already missed and will always be missed. You hold a special place in my heart. From Pop. Ma Stella , sister Laganda and the entire Alabama family we love you and may you rest in peace big bro.

*Your brother,
Gary Bivins*

“ *Man oh man. First, condolences to Tims wife and family. Tim was like a big brother to me through elementary, and middle school. I used to tutor him in middle school and early high school. He was always nice and respectful. No more wild than most young men his age at the time. I'm sorry I haven't met his wife, I'm sure she's very special, Tim was special also. If he was as good a husband as he was a friend, I feel a small amount of your pain. Peace to you and remember; the physical is gone but all that he was lives in you. So sorry for your loss. “ *My Big Cousin Tim,
I met you my senior year of high school and one of my best memories of you when you walked me down for senior recognition night at my last football game. You always supported my goals and dreams and would always tell me to get my degree. Well big cuz I got my degree now! You encouraged me to go into the military and that was one of the best decisions because it was a huge impact on my life and it set me up for greatness. We had so many great memories together from Pittsburgh to Atlanta. I will never forget how huge your heart was and how over protective you are of your family. Your house was my house. Thank you for everything that you have done for me in college and in life. I still can't believe you're gone. Going to Atlanta will never be the same. I will shine and I will stay on my grind! I love you and you will forever be missed.*

“ Mr. Tim "Pittsburgh Steeler" Lewis made it very clear when we went to the house for bbq's or celebrations that we were in steelers territory, and we all laughed and had fun about it. We will truly miss having good times with him. Praying for strength and comfort for the family.

“ Uncle Tim,

I am very torn as I am writing this. Though I met you while I was a college student at Georgia State, you made a very profound impact in my life during time together. You always saw the silver lining within life's situations and assured that hard times wouldn't last long but tough people would overcome. The many memories we shared whilst a young man and following up through my manhood has shown me to persevere and not to dwell in my sorrow. Upon the untimely passing of my father and your dear friend, Lyndon B. Johnson Sr, I was lost but you assured me that I had another father within you. This is difficult for me as words will never convey my utmost love and gratitude for your genuine kindness and love. I reflect on when I saw you and Mama Paula a few weeks ago during my military travels and I smile. I smile knowing that I was able to see your amazing smile and hear that silly laugh of yours. And let's not forget the years of venting you laid on me! I loved every second of it! It will be missed but it will forever be in our hearts. I will continue to press on within the military as you directed of me and will ensure to continue to make you proud.

With all of my love and sincerity,

Your forever nephew,

Lyndon B. Johnson Jr.

“ Uncle Tim,
your legacy of love, warmth, integrity and words of advice (if you want to shine, then you got to grind lol) will live on in our hearts forever. We will miss your phone calls, smile, laugh and the joy you brought into our lives, but we are grateful for the beautiful moments we shared. Rest in peace, Uncle Tim.

With love,
