“ To the family of Tira Zannetta Ashcraft:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ May "the God of all comfort" grant you peace as you all look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." ~John 5:28,29. Jesus speaks of God's loving resurrection provision when he stated: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25. Remember...God is faithful and always keeps his promises! Consider Isaiah 55:11, John 3:16 and Revelation 21:3-5.

“ Shira, I would like to send my condolences to you and your family. I wanted to share with you just a little bit of this scripture as it helped me through this very situation. "Yeah though I walk through the valley of the SHADOW of death". When you walk through this process, I know it seems dark but where ever there is a shadow, lights not far away. Please know that there will be no more suffering in this life for Tira. Know that we love you and are here for you.

“ To the Ashcroft Family and Friends, Though I know that this is a difficult time for you, my hope is that when the time is right for it you might allow yourself to be comforted by the hope found in God's inspired word, the Bible. John 5:28,29. And Rev 21: 3,4 . These give hope of a future resurrection and the complete elimination of death,, pain and mourning. Under Jesus" kingdom rule we have this and much more to look forward to.. For more scriptural encouragement please go to www.jw.org. Warm Cristian Love, Bonnie Perkins Rockbridge Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

What a Beautiful Lovely Person Tira was...She will truly be missed..Love her so much. I called her a Soldier, strong even when the walls seemed they were caving in. She love her family, friends so much. She was easy spirited, kind hearted, sweet and Loved people and the the Lord. I think of all the good times we had and I smile because she was so true and loving. Tears, Joy, Pain, Laughter, cries and memories I will cherish. LadyBug you are at peace sleep well. Thank you for our friendship, sistahood, good times, talks, laughter, joy. I'm glad I told you often I Love you. No more tears, cries, pain and sorrow...See you later Tira! Sweet Dreams

*I feel a warmth around me like your presence is so near,
And I close my eyes to visualize your face and smile when you were here,
I endure the times we spent together and they are locked inside my heart,
For as long as I have those memories
we will never be apart,
Even though we cannot speak no more your voice/laughter is always here*

*Tira when I heard that you had left us
I was simply blown away
How could that be possible
We were laughing yesterday.*

*Your humor, your 'grin' and smile
You had one unique style!
You truly had a special gift.*

*Always there for everyone
So dependable, sincere, kind, gentle and caring Felt good to have you near.*

*My dear departed friend
I'll think of you each day
Peace and rest and comfort you have today.*

*Your last words to me
Will help my tears to dry
See ya, Love ya, Bye!"*
