“ I have been thinking about Tobias Adams recently. We were in the first grade in Haddock, Ga. Idella Duncan elementary school. We were sitting in the cafeteria and out of the blue, Tobias kissed me on my full lips. Everyone sitting beside us were commenting on this kiss I remember going home and telling my Momma about this boy that kissed me . After the 3rd grade he disappeared. He reappeared in the 9th grade. He walked pass me and I noticed him. We never communicated. He disappeared again and I never saw him again until today when I spoke his name into my phone. Today I saw his date of birth and death. See you in Heaven, Tobias. I'll never forget you or your baby sister.
