“ Can't tell you when I met her. But she was a staple of Iconium during my childhood. I was always amazed at her command of this awesome MALE chorus. How she directed them and to some point sung above them as her little body glided across that organ. I was elated to see her at Lindsay Street to celebrate A mother's 100th birthday. I had the pleasure to bring her to my mom and they seem to just glow with fond memories. She was a passionate Church Musician - that requires a sacrifice few understand. Sherri and Rod thank you.

“ Deepest Sympathy to the Family and Friends of Mrs. Toby Jennings. I first met Mrs. Jennings at the tender age of 13 at Parks Jr. High. She was an amazing, firm but fun Chorus Teacher. She introduced her students to decorum; manners, respect for others; and a myriad of spiritual, classical and Broadway music. This knowledge would later serve me well in my professional career.

“ My prayers and deepest sympathy and condolences to the Jennings family. Ms. Jennings was an inspiration in my life as I began my educational journey at W.L. Parks School middle school. Under her leadership, we had the BEST chorus in Atlanta Public Schools (1973). She taught us at an early age when praise go up, blessings come down. Thank you Sherri and Rod for sharing your wonderful mother. May God strengthen and keep you during this difficult time.
