June 1, 1973 - January 29, 2021

Obituary

A Time to be Born

On June 1, 1973 God beseeched the heavens to open up and commissioned one of his angels to walk among us for a season. Wife, Daughter, Sister, Friend; whatever her role in your life was, you are forever changed. Tomeka Decole Simpson-Dumas departed this life on January 29, 2021 at Emory Saint Joseph's Hospital, Atlanta, Georgia to once again don her wings. Though we are well-grieved and heavy-hearted, we take comfort in knowing that she is with her grandmother, Mrs. Essie Mae Simpson.

A Time to Love

Proverbs 18:22 says, "He who finds a wife finds a good thing." Her adoring husband, Bernard O'Hara Dumas, smitten at first sight of her; relinquished his heart and gave her his last name. The two were joined in Holy Matrimony on May 1, 1999. Together, they set out to build a life of loyalty, love, and laughter. Their whirlwind 2-week romance yielded 21 years of devoted marriage and unwavering commitment. Through sickness and in health, for richer or poorer their love evolved into a sanctuary with two intertwined souls.

A Time for Scholarship

Educated in the Dougherty County School System and Graduating with Honors from Monroe Comprehensive High School, Tomeka received many awards and accolades for her scholarship. Having duly matriculated at Albany State University, Tomeka had the Degrees of Bachelor of Arts in the areas of Social Work (1997) and Psychology (1998) bestowed upon her. Tomeka continued her academic pursuits; receiving a Masters of Science Degree in Criminal Justice from Troy State University.

A Time for Service

She pledged her love and loyalty to the illustrious Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated (Stone Mountain-Lithonia Alumnae Chapter) in the Spring of 2009. Her genuine nature and compassion for others aligned

“ Tomeka,

My beloved line sister whose light illuminated a room, whose smile welcomed you, and who always had an encouraging word, I will miss you. I will remember the moments we shared shortly after crossing and how you were kind. It costs nothing, but means everything. We had a wonderful conversation and shared laughter while attending our first chapter Prayer Breakfast. I am grateful God connected us. While I will miss your presence, I know you are home with our Father in Heaven. You lived a beautiful life and I am honored to have shared time with you.

To Bernard and family, my sincerest condolences for your loss. May God blanket you with His love, comfort you with the Holy Spirit, and grant you peace that surpasses all understanding.

Sincerely,

“ I've never met you in person but I've heard so much about you. Thanks for sharing your sister Yucca with me. Listening to the stories Yucca tell and how much she talks about you is so amazing. She loves you so much and it was a pleasure to hear her talk about you. She always spoke so highly of you. I feel blessed just hearing those stories and feel like I know you. It has been a please to just know your family. I love you all and I send my condolences to your family and pray God continues to be with you all in your time of need. God says; "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light. Matthew 11:28-30

“ How do you put into words what such an amazing woman means to you. Tomeka you are my sister, dear friend, keeper of my secrets. Your personality is matched by no other. You are brilliant in all aspects. We worked long hours together, spent time kicking back together, shared the days our pain was bad, laughed uncontrollably at each other, held each other as tears filled our eyes when one of us was down, we stood by each other through all life threw at us. You could always make me smile with the funny things you said. You impacted each person you met. How lucky I am to have shared time with you. I love you completely. Bernard thank you for sharing Tomeka with all of us. We are here for you now and always. We have been and will continue to pray you, your family and Tomeka's family. I'll see you again Meka
