“ I didn't know your beloved wife but knowing you was just like knowing her. One thing I know for sure is that she was the love of your life. You loved her dearly and I know her going home to be with the Lord has left an empty space in your heart but God has you in the palm of His hand. Trust in Him with all your heart and lean not to your own understanding. She fought the good fight and she has finished the race. She will always and forever be with you in mind and spirit. I stand in the gap with prayers to hold you up during this time of sorrow and grief. You are loved by many to include me. If ever you need someone to pray with you, don't hesitate to call. I continue to ask God to carry you until such time you are able to walk by yourself because right now, it's very difficult. He will see you through. Your friend Jacque.
