“ Tamah was a dear stepsister whom my father Evelyn O Hodge loved dearly. As far as he was concerned, she was his daughter and did all he could to speak with her as often as he could. That came to an end only when I telephoned her one week before his 99th birthday on 21st May. She told me then that he was not to worry about her because she didn't think she'd make it through to that date and she was ready to go. I prayed before passing on the message but he did not take it well.

When I visited him yesterday he was reading his devotional Hope of Glory which she'd sent him. He was sad but said "She's gone out of her suffering."

Two of her Virgin Islands Secondary School classmates, Lola and Joyce are members of our Friday morning prayer group.

We all look forward to seeing her in Gloryland. And we all send condolences to her husband and children and grandchildren and all members of the extended family.

RIP my sister-friend. See you in the morning.

“ Our sincerest condolences on your mother's passing; We pray that God will provide your family the peace and comfort you need during your time of sorrow.

I will never forget her kindest towards my family and me when we first moved to Georgia (we were both in our twenties then). Although we are family, we did not know each other well, but she invited us into her home and made us feel like we had known each other for years. I wish I could have known her better.

Praying God will grant peace to you all.

“ My condolences to my nieces and nephews, you have lost a mother and sister. Tracey, you were my niece that I loved dearly. The lost has broken my heart and spirit. You were such a wonderful young woman, who loved her girls, grandson and family. I will miss your contagious laughter and your beautiful smile. When I seen you last we laughed we cried and we made lasting memories. When you were born you were such a beautiful baby. I love when I had the opportunity to babysit for you. You were like a little doll to me. I could never imagine that I would never hear that laughter or see that beautiful smile. You will always have a special place in my heart. You are with your mom, grandma and great grandparents now. No more pain or worries just Rest In Peace. You will be truly missed but never forgotten. I will be there for my nieces whenever they need me.

Love you Aunt Kim

“Tracy I miss you so much. I love you so much. I never thought this day would come. I wish so many things were different. So much time gone. I wish we had more time. I wish we made more calls. I am stuck on the many memories we share. You always had my back and I always knew you would be there. I am just realizing I have lost the first two women I have ever loved and it hurts. I can only imagine what my nieces are going through. Rest In Peace Queen...”

My deepest condolences goes out to my great nieces and Tracey's brothers and family members. My sweet loving niece Tracey, I have no words to express the lost that I feel at this instance. To learn of your passing brought me to tears and made me numb. You were such a beautiful young woman with a contagious laugh. I am now reflecting on the good times we shared as aunt and niece but a friend also. Whenever, we spoke if you or I was having a challenging day, we would find a way to end our conversation on a optimistic note. I will truly miss those times, not being able to hear your voice or laughter will leave a emptiness in my heart that that never be replaced. When you were first born and I seen you, it was like looking at a beautiful little doll. From that day I loved you with all my heart and being your aunt was a privilege. As you grew up and had your own children, I could see the love you had for them. I remember when you were here last to visit your mom, we had a great time. I wish we could have spent more time together but I knew you had to get back home. Tracey, you where very special to me, I could never envision that would be the last time I would see you or hear your voice. I will continue to keep that smile and laughter in my heart. I will truly miss you but I know that your mom, grandmother and great grandparents are waiting for you with open arms. No more worries my dear niece dear niece may you Rest In Peace. Love you with all my heart Aunt Kim...

“ My cousin Tracey L. Metts was a kind, loving , and warm hearted person . Her vivacious spirit and charismatic personality could light up any room . Her beautiful bubbly spirit and legacy will forever live on . I remember all the cook outs and summers we had together in West Palm Beach and at my parents house and all the wonderful memories in ATL celebrating Fourth of Julys, Thanksgivings , and just because trips together as a family . Tracey loved going to the beach specifically Lake Worth Beach ,watching movies, and most importantly being around her family and loved ones . The advice she gave me years ago and all the long lasting beautiful memories will forever live in my heart . Tracey, Justin and I love you and miss you dearly . I give my deepest condolences to my cousins Kiara, Kayla, and Kendall during this arduous time . Love you always from your little cousin Chloe Parson-Blount and Justin Blount .
