

Tracy Yvette Harris

April 28, 1965 - September 3, 2025

Tracy Yvette Harris, 60, of Lawrenceville, Georgia, passed away on Wednesday, September 3, 2025.

Born with a bright spirit and a gift for connecting with others, Tracy built a career that spanned both finance and healthcare. She began her professional journey on Wall Street, starting as a teller at the Bank of New York, later serving as a trading assistant at a bond house, and advancing to a prestigious midtown stock market firm as a stock market trader. Following the events of September 11, Tracy shifted her path to not-for-profit work, dedicating herself to teaching clients how to successfully enter the workforce.

Her greatest joy came with the birth of her beloved son, Jordan Arias. After his arrival, Tracy relocated to Lawrenceville, where she worked at the Gwinnett County Health Department and, most recently, with Emory Healthcare as a Patient Account Engagement Liaison.

Tracy had a passion for crafts and thrift store shopping, and her vibrant personality made her the life of every gathering. Friends fondly recall that “Tracy talks to and knows everybody.” Though life was not always easy, her strength, selflessness, and unwavering devotion to Jordan defined her journey. She lovingly raised him with wisdom, compassion, and resilience.

She will be deeply missed by her son, her church family, her neighbors, and her many friends who were touched by her warmth and laughter.

She is survived by her son: Jordan Arias; sisters: Jullie Harris, Leah Smith (Jarvis Smith); her brother, Joseph Terry King, Jr.(Correen King); nieces Quiana Smith and Camryn King; nephews: Justin Smith (Brittany), Christopher King, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Tracy and I were best friends. But not only was she my best friend but she was my sister. We always called each other “Sis” I was always there for her whenever I could be and she was always there for me and my family. Nothing can describe the pain that is felt hearing that you lost a best friend/sister. Jordan we love you and will be praying for you. 🙏🙏🙏

“ Oh, Tracy. I will never forget when you came to my house one night to kill a snake that was on my back porch. You were fearless and I was screaming like a girl! You will be missed chic. Give Momma King a hug for us and we will be sure to share many hugs with Jordan. Sending so much love to the family because they never shy away from loving on others. May God wrap you all in His arms.
