“ I did not personally get the opportunity to meet Ms. Treva but I went to school with her daughter Kim. What an amazing daughter she raised which is all I need to know about Ms. Treva. Please accept my condolences to Kim's family and comfort from our Lord Jesus Christ! The Lord has granted Ms. Treva her wings. Barbara Walker Kydd

“ It is not the material things that has made the difference in my life, but the people God has placed in my life to accompany me on my journey. My career has taken me to various states and never knowing anyone when I arrive, God has never failed to connect me with the blessing of a true friendship. Friendship isn't how many "like me" one receives on social media or about "what you can do for me". it's a listening ear, laughter, lunch on a park bench, walks along the water, helping someone with an errand or simply just being. I am so grateful I experienced all of this and more with my dear friend Ms. Treva. I was sad when she relocated to Georgia, but thankful that we could still talk over the phone and our conversations were always filled with laughter and prayers. One of my favorite Bible Scriptures of friendship, "A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity." Proverbs 17:17. From the first time we met at church we were instant friends. Loved ones never fade from our memories, they are forever locked in our hearts.

To the family, my sincere condolence and prayers and may God grant each of you peace and comfort.

God's Blessings,
Phyllis
