“ Trina and I met through her big sister Sheryl when we got our confirmations together at Transfiguration. Fast forward 30+ years and we ran into each other at the Puppetry Arts museum in Atlanta Georgia and picked up just where we left off. She was such a beautiful person and had grown into a powerful and positive woman/mother/sister/daughter. So sad to hear of your passing even though I know you're brightening the room in heaven. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Trina and I met while our children were in preschool. Kennedy & my daughter were friends and I had the privilege of being Jade's teacher. So many memories of those young years. I loved Trina dearly and admired her joy, strength and kindness. She was one of a kind and had the ability to light a room by simply walking in. We moved away from GA long ago but Trina never failed to stay in touch and it was like no time had passed. Much love to her family~ especially Kennedy & Jade and many prayers being said. Rest with our Lord sweet friend!

“ I met Trina at our Financial Planner’s Dinner Presentation, she saw my husband and I sitting at a table by ourselves and decided to sit with us. She and I became fast friends, exchanging laughs and eventually phone numbers. Her attitude, gentle demeanor and smile genuinely lit up the room. She was truly special and will be missed. Psalms 90:12 states “So teach us to number our days, that we may incline our hearts to wisdom.” Life is short, we must live with purpose and make the most of each day. Love you Trina! RIH!

“ My memories of Trina are forever connected as I taught both her lovely daughters Modern Dance for years. Not only was she ever so proud of their talents and performances, she always came to me professing my choreography was perfection. Of course, working with her delightful daughters was easy because they share the same light as Trina. On a funny memory, as she waited for the girls to finish rehearsal, I would bust her singing and eating fast food in her car. Love her happy smile, her endearing laugh, and I miss her deeply but know I can visit her thru her phenomenal daughters, Kennedy and Jade. Much love always, Ms Susan

“ Good people will always be missed and the good moments will be cherished. The first time I met Trina , she looked me over and I guess I passed the test. We have shared fun times to ornament decorating to introducing me to cookie butter, to giving up her bed when we came to visit. Always kind to my children like they were hers. Rest peacefully !! Love always Tiffany.

“ Trina has been a gift to everyone her presence touched. The sweetest soul, warmest smile and kindest heart. Trina and Sheryl have been big sisters to me since Transfiguration and with Trina, again at St. Mary’s Academy. Through adulthood, she was still a positive presence. You will be missed. Our hearts are broken, but how blessed are we to have had you in our lives. Love you big sister. You will be greatly missed. To the entire Patton family, to my big sis Sheryl. Praying for comfort. Love, Trenita
