“ Trudy was a graceful, funny, & quietly strong pillar of bright light at the World of Coca-Cola where we worked together from 1991-1997. Trudy was a bedrock to a 'dream team' - along with Lisa Scott (Wilkinson), and many others, who together created the best, most fun and hard-working group I've ever had the honor of working with- I've missed them and that time so much in the years since. We got to experience the 1996 Olympics together, and countless celebrations in each other's lives.

I also had the honor of getting to know Phillip during those years, along with their children, and I know that Trudy was most proud of her family and their bonds. I cannot know or feel the depth of their grief right now, but I know that every day they had with Trudy was a priceless gift from our awesome Lord and Savior. I look forward to being with Trudy again one day!!
