“ Ayanna was my co-worker and close friend at both Georgia State University and the Schenke School. She was so full of life and always kept a positive and caring attitude about her. She was extremely driven and excelled in everything she did. She was a pillar of strength and love during my darkest times and was there celebrating with me when God brought me through. She had an unshakeable faith. She adored her loving husband and children. My life has been enriched because of our friendship. I miss you, Ayanna, but we will meet again one day.
