“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. God empowered Jesus to resurrect dead ones in the past and he promises: "Your dead will live....They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. Jesus assures us: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25

“ I was a booth renter of Velma's at Meli's on Memorial Drive in 2000 and continued to stay in touch with her because she was truly a nice person. She never had a bad day while I was with her, and if she did, you never knew it. I won't forget her happy disposition and the way she always jokingly, greeted my grandson. The hurt I feel has no comparison to what you are feeling. Just know that she was loved and admired by me.

“ We have the 502 Walnut Street Daniel family and the 503 Walnut Street Daniel family. Each family was Blessed with 5 children, but the 502 Walnut Street Daniel Family got "the boy!" Troy aside, the Daniel women dominated our little corner of the world. My heart nor my head can reconcile that our generational circle has been broken. Lenora, "Ree," "Val," Troy, this is a level of grief that I cannot comprehend; I thank God that my Faith allows me to put this into perspective and to know that at the end of the day ALL IS WELL. Sending you love and blessings from Boston,
Alveta

“ My sincerest condolences to the family of Velma Daniel. Losing a loved one in death is painful. It is such times like this that we should look to the Almighty God for comfort. Psalm 34:18 says, "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit."

May your reflection on this promise and your many fond memories of Velma give you the strength you need to endure this difficult time.

“ With deepest sympathies, May God bless and keep you the family always. We are the Elegancer Coiffeurs Family, the salon Velma worked at years ago. We loved Velma very much. Although I had not seen her recently, we will always keep memories of her in our hearts. She truly was a nice young lady, a beautiful spirit, and a child of the king. Love, peace.
