“ May the God of love and comfort embrace you in your moments of grief, Matthew 5:4 reminds us "Happy are those who mourn, since they will be comforted." If you have hope in the resurrection your sorrow will not be unrelenting. As the Bible says you will "not sorrow just as the rest do that have no hope." (1 Thessalonians 4:13) rather you will draw close to God in prayer and the Bible promises that He himself will sustain you." Psalms 55:22. www.jw.org

“ *To the Family:
I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer condolences to you all. God made a provision to resurrect dead ones when "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in that loving provision when he said..."I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. (John 11:25). Remember...God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Joshua 23:14).*

“ *I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. I know that the loss of a love one brings much grief and agony. Thanks to our loving Heavenly Father we can find much comfort in his word the Bible. Our Heavenly Father gives us the promise of a resurrection (John 5:28, 29 Acts 24:15) and the end of death and suffering. (Revelation 21:3, 4) Getting to know the true God and his son Jesus, assures us all eternal life.
