Truly sorry for your loss.

“ I will cherish the times I was able to spend with Ms. Vera when she would come to visit her daughter, Vera. Ms. Vera definitely loved to travel and spend time with her dear family. I think fondly on the times we played Uno together. Ms. Vera truly touched my heart, and she will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ I never had the pleasure of meeting Ms. Lyte in person but I feel as if I did through her daughters, Vera and Brenda. The joy she brought to their lives and they to hers, was always evident in how often and freely they shared their stories. I know she was loved, well cared for and will be missed by her family. May you find comfort and peace in knowing you were there for her and have a lifetime of memories to see you through this season. May God bless and keep you.

"Grief never ends; but it changes. It's a passage, not a place to stay. Grief is not a sign of weakness nor a lack of faith. It is the price of LOVE."

Continuing to pray for the family. Your friend, Sandra Brown.

“ Mom loved God, Family and travel. Everyone who knew her loved her. I love, honor and celebrate her because she was a true Angel everyday.

“ Although I didn't have the honor of meeting Ms. Vera Lee in this life, my husband and I had the distinguished pleasure of meeting and getting to know Yolanda and Timothy during their time in El Paso/Fort Bliss, Texas. Meeting them tremendously changed the trajectory of our lives. I am certain that Mother Vera Lee Lyte's influence on them, touched us all these miles away as well.

Dear Ms. Yolonda, Mr. Tim, Ms. Lyte's family and loved ones, may our prayers embrace and envelop you with warmth, tranquility, and peace.

*God bless you always,
