“ Mrs. Hurst, I will never forget how you and Min. Hurst took my family and I under your wings. You adopted us as grandchildren and extended so much love! Thank you for your unending love and constant wisdom. Your strong faith was such an inspiration! I will miss you indefinitely, but I am comforted knowing that you have received your eternal reward! Love you always.

“ My family and the Hurst family first met in Germany, back in the '70's(as in 1970's). 😊 Our families instantly melded into ONE. Rev. and Mrs. Hurst, their 6 kids, my dad & mom, and their 4 kids had a BLAST in Germany. We attended the same church, schools, and always fellowshipped together! I considered Mrs. Hurst my 2nd mom...a beautiful, wise, kind spirit who always watched out for us! My most recent memory was this past November when I stopped through Atlanta headed back to AL from NC. Mrs. Hurst was concerned about me driving at night and invited me to stay the night with her. I was elated to spend that evening in the company of Mrs. Hurst & family. I could go on and on but suffice it to say, our families share a very special bond. I am so thankful to GOD, who so graciously orchestrated our families' paths to cross and for our decades-long friendship to remain. I will miss you Mrs. Eleanor even though I know you're safe in HIS ARMS, the arms of JESUS! LOVE ALWAYS!💛

To the Hurst family, you have our sincere sympathy. I met Eleanor and her husband through Eleanor sister, Sylvia Pinkney, Eleanor always showed love, kindness and had such a beautiful spirit. I admired her style and her hats. I always looked forward to seeing her when she visited her sister. Will miss her visits, her lovely smile. May God bring you comfort, peace, strength, and surround you with comforting memories. R.I.P. dear Eleanor. Love and prayers, Anna & Syl Franklin

“ I am 53 years young.. My Aunt Vern has been in my life ALL OF MY LIFE.. if I had to leave a memory as a memorial; It must be the words she spoke to me when my husband passed... Ywanda, your apart of my club now..I will not say this road is easy but I will say that I know that YOU CAN DO IT ☐ !!” From the prayers on the phone to some corrections over the phone to her trying to make me “ A pastor,lol on the phone...My dear Aunt Vern.. You truly truly LEFT YOUR MARK! I shall miss you 🍀🍀🍀
