

Vernon Lewis Clemons

November 4, 1959 - July 26, 2017

Vernon Lewis Clemons was 57 years old. He passed away on Wednesday July 26, 2017 in McDonough, Georgia. He was preceded in death by his father Reverend Robert Lewis Clemons and his two sisters Sylvia Clemons, Brenda Clemons. He leaves his mom Dr. Dorothy Nash; his brother Attorney Randal Mangham; his sister-in-law Andrea Mangham; his two sisters: Tammy Lesley and Georgina Clemons; his three daughters: Candace Clemons, Dr. Heather Clemons, Dr. Holly Clemons; his three grandchildren: Marquez Collins, Kendall Collins, Caitlyn Holt; one great granddaughter: Brooke-Taylor Collins, and many close family and friends. He was born and raised in Spalding, County and later moved to Decatur, Georgia. Vernon Clemons confessed Christ at an early age at Eighth Street Baptist Church. He was called in the ministry at a young age and even though he didn't live out his calling in the ministry everyone knew his love for the Lord. He was a kind and giving man; always lending a hand to others and giving out Godly advice. He was educated in the Spalding County and Dekalb County School Systems and he graduated from South West Dekalb High School in 1977. As a young man, he played drums in a band and he loved to ride and breed horses; his pride and joy. After high school, he served in the U.S. Air force and served eight years as military police officer. On October 2, 1978, he married Carolyn Ann Hood. From this union three daughters were born: Candace Clemons, Dr. Heather Lee Clemons, and Dr. Holly Rene Clemons.

After serving two terms in the U.S. Air Force he later became an entrepreneur where he passionately worked 25 years at his own extermination company, Metropolitan Pest Control. Within the last five years, he spent time with his immediate family and extended family. He cherished fishing and riding horses with his late uncles and cousins until his health declined. On Wednesday morning, July 26, 2017, God called him to his heavenly home.
