“ We shared a bond through a passion for dance. The music has quieted but the memory of dancing with you will remain forever. Thank you for the joy, friendship, and beautiful memories. Rest well, Vicki, you will surely be missed.

My heartfelt condolences to the family - may you find some comfort during this very difficult time. Debbie, Veronica, my thoughts and prayers for strength are with you.

“ I met Vickie over three decades and consider her as not only a friend but my Sister. I had the privilege of working and dancing with her in her early years at Footsteps Dance Studio. I'm so blessed and blessed she was in my life as a mentor and dear friend. She inspired me to fall in love with Tap Dancing. She has always been a woman of grace, dignity and excellence. I will miss her dearly but know that she is smiling and dancing in heaven

“ Vicki was a childhood friend and a girlfriend in High School. We shared secrets and we laughed and giggling about our boyfriends who were BFFs. Her Love for dance was demonstrated through her impeccable performances. Vicki and Debbie were Dancer's Dancers. I'll miss talking to Vicki. Always poised, she exemplified Beauty, Dignity and Grace. Vicki fought the good fight. She will always be remembered. I extend my heartfelt condolences to the family. Jacquetta McMurray

“ I had the pleasure of taking dance lessons from Vicki as an adult. I was always amazed at how she could "break down" a step so that any one of us could move like a dancer!! She also hosted my one and only baby shower in 1983. Rest in peace my friend. Jean Lloyd
