“ Auntie Vickie will truly be missed. She was my mom's friend first and family over the years. She shared so many important moments in my life. I'm going to miss the smile, the wave and the country "Hey". I know Auntie enjoyed every moment in her life. Bryan, Cindy and Ethan, I will keep you in prayer. -Tasha

I met Vickie at a job, years ago. Became a family friend once I met her son, Bryan. Lot's of memories and love throughout the years, too much to disclose. I still have a part of her loving will, In a plant that she gave me when our working relationship shut down. I still have it, To this Day! Praying to it Daily...!

“ The candle may go out, but the memory of its light remains. Our thoughts are with you during this sad time. Words of sympathy feel inadequate in expressing grief and sorrow for a loss so great. Sending a warm embrace and all my love during this sad time.

Vickie and I grew up together with her mom being my second mom and teaching us both to be upstanding, gracious and respectful young women. We did our very best to raise our children with the same values. Vickie was so very proud of you Bryan and the man you have become. She was very proud of her grandson and she's y'all's guardian angel now! Rest peacefully Vickie until we meet again in God's glorious kingdom!

My most sincere condolences to you, Bryan and family but especially to your son. He was his GG'sheart.

Vicki and I became good friends at the YMCA. Boy, did she love her physical activity. Everywhere we went in the community Vicki knew someone or struck up conversations with strangers. I dearly loved her and will miss our faith -filled conversations. I am sorry I cannot be with you to support you in your grief, but know I am with you in spirit.
