“ Mrs. Vilma will be missed from this earthly life, She was a beautiful spirit very soft spoken and kind. Mama Vilma always cooked a meal for us when we visited my sister Betty. She was one of a kind. she was a mother to so many people you couldn't help but love her. Rest in heaven my love until we meet again! Love you always Linda and Family.

“ At this moment I reflect with a void in my heart. Yet, I smile and give Thanks for all the joyous times Mama Vilma and I shared. Weather it was going to a Dr. appointment, a Princess House event, Birthday celebration, graduation, learning Trinidad’s culture, cooking in the kitchen, or planning the next meal, it was her young at heart spirit that I admired, the wisdom she shared, and the everlasting love she gave.

Thank you Andre’, Michael, & all the Prospere family for allowing me to be in Mama Vilma’s Godly space. She called me her daughter and I called her Mama. Oh what an Honor! My life and other lives have been enriched.... Because she lived. Missing you.

Love and Blessings to my family.
