“ My condolences to the family of Vincent Cumberlander. I am truly sorry to hear of your loss. It is at times like this that we truly need words of comfort. Those words come from our Heavenly Father. He is called at 2Corinthians 1:3,4, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation. He gives us such assurances at John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4 that we will see our loved ones again. I hope that his promises will give you the needed strength to endure this difficult time.
