“ You've been my BEST friend for 64 years and now I must let you go for now. Our memories are deep! We've shared sooo much in the years. I'll miss our daily telephone calls, our family reunions and prayers. Words can't express the void at this time, but I have peace in knowing that you are simply resting until that 'great gettin up morning. Our love and friendship will ever be and I trust in God that we WILL be reunited again soon, very soon! Thank you my dear friend for all of the precious memories!

“ Although we knew this day will come for all of us; it has come too soon for you. We just spoke a few days ago it seems. I've known you all of my life because you were my mom's best friend. There are so many fond memories! You were such a giver of love, so kind and quite funny too! Yes, our hearts are sadden and broken into pieces but we have this hope in Jesus that we WILL meet again, and very soon. Until then, rest peacefully and we will see you in heaven. ~ Lyra
