

Vivian Murrain

December 23, 1952 - August 7, 2023

Vivian Murrain was born December 23, 1952 in The Bronx, New York to the late Belle Murrain & Hubert Ranton. After many years in the city Vivian decided to start a new life in Georgia with her son and relocated in 1985.

Working several jobs as hardworking single mom Vivian landed a position as a legal clerk with the law firm Fowler, Hein, Cheatwood & Williams, where she has been for the past 25 years.

Vivian loved working in her beautiful yard, spending time with her grandchildren, and enjoying life!

Vivian departed this life August 7, 2023. She leaves to cherish her memories her only child & son Cass (Dawn), her five grandchildren Alandrea, Taylor, Cass Jr, Kevin, and Granny' baby Katelyn (Katie), one sister Donna, special cousin Denise, and a host of extended family and friends. She was preceded in death by mother Belle, father Hubert and brother Richard.

“ My deepest condolences to Vivian, Family, Friends & Relatives. I met Vivian the first time at Mikells on Columbus Avenue NYC; she was introduced to me by her friend Larry Brown. Vivian lived on Anthony Avenue Bronx NY; and sometime in early 1985 we met again and after that I never heard and never knew that would be the last time!
Peace & love Vivian; Rest in Peace!

My deep condolences to Vivian's family and friends. Vivian was my hair client for 5 years. I always look forward to our conversations on various topics. She was very proud of her family and spoke of wonderful things about her grandchildren. Thank you for supporting my business. You will be missed. Rest in heaven Queen Vivian. Everlasting peace and love to you !
