“ My heart goes out to Temika and the entire family. I met Pedro 26 years ago when I traveled with Temika to Virginia Beach to visit him at work, and from the moment I met him, he treated me like family. He was kind, warm, always smiling, and full of memorable stories. Through the years, he remained a good friend, and I saw firsthand the deep love he had for his family and for my dear friend Temika. No matter where we were, he always made sure I was good and taken care of. I'm truly grateful to have known him, and his spirit will live on in all the lives he touched. Rest in peace, Pedro.
