“ For over 35 years, Geno has been my friend and neighbor. On some of my brightest days and/or darkest days, he was there for me and my family. We traveled together as a family for many years, camping and family reunions and many other occasions. I will miss my “wonderful friend”. Condolences to “My Wonderful Friends/Family” and May peace and the Lord be with you in the days ahead. I will continue to keep you in my prayers.

“ May the Snell family be comforted by the love of God, family and friends in their hour of bereavement. At Rev. 21:4 God's word tells us that they day is coming where on sickness and death will be no more. The Bible also gives us the hope of seeing our deceased loved ones again through the resurrection. May you cherish the memories of Mr. Snell until that day arrives.

“ A small twitch of the twine attached to his fishing pole indicating a fish is nibbling on his bate, and a smile would begin to light up the world on the mans face. Ask about his wife, children, or grandchildren and a smile would grow once again. Walter loved his family and fishing!!!.... My prayers and heart felt condolences in the loss of a wonderful father, husband, and friend. Personally I will miss the conversations while you lay on the exam/treatment table. Most of the time I would make his back felt great, yet he would always make my day with the smile and a story. You will be missed my dear friend!!!

“ My sincerest condolences to the family of Walter Snell. Losing a loved one in death is painful. It is such times like this that we should look to the Almighty God for comfort. Psalm 34:18 says, "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit."

May your reflection on this promise and your many fond memories of Walter give you the strength you need to endure this difficult time.
