“ *Lawander,
Was my hat and suit friend. To me she had a sweet spirit.I meet her when I first came to Griffin Ga.My husband introduced me to her.Any time I need her to help with and event she was their.The last time we all was together she was dress from head to toe in a pretty blue we laught and talk as we fed the people at a friend husband funeral services.
We shared fun moments. If only I knew I would laugh a little longer talk a little longer about pretty hats and beautiful suits hug a little longer share more memories about how we meet..I know She was a change person from my view through the years.
I will miss my fashion Queen .Some people have an impressive personality Lawanda was that kind of friend to me..*

“ Deepest Sympathies And Heartfelt Condolences To The White-Kellogg Family. So Sad To Hear Of “Gal’s” Passing. Definitely An Amazingly Genuine Woman. I Recall Years Ago She Shared Her Amazing Testimony Of Her Born Again Conversion With Me. She Was So Elated To Have Given Her Life To The LORD GOD, JESUS CHRIST! I Will Never Ever Forget It, We Rejoiced Together!! Right There In Our Yard On Tobie Court! You’re Home Now!
