“ My husband Donn and Wardel were Co-Dads. This meant they trusted each other with their precious children. Only strong men of God can be trusted in this manner. Our kids all siblings they have been fortunate to have had bonus parents who all treasured them. Only God could create such a family. It is with much sorrow that we say good bye for now. You are loved and we are Proud to have had you as family. Thanks for always being the light we needed.

“ I was so deeply saddened to receive the news that Wardell had passed. I am a member of his extended family and have known him for many years. The word that best describes Wardell is GREAT. He was a GREAT man of God. He loved Jesus Christ as his personal Savior and followed Him. Holy Spirit worked in and through Wardell to bless others. Being a man of God, Wardell had GREAT character and a GREAT big loving heart. To be around Wardell was a joy, because of his love, warmth, and positive attitude. I never heard him speak ill of anyone or saw him angry. Wardell loved his family and extended family which was evident by the way he provided and cared for them. He was a GREAT son, brother, husband, father, stepfather, grandfather, uncle, in-law, friend. Wardell. was generous with his time and talents. Wardell was a GREAT role model for all men, especially young Black boys and men. We will truly miss Wardell but rejoice that he is alive and well in Heaven. Those of us who have accepted Jesus as our personal Lord and Savior will see Wardell again and live together with him and others, who have gone before us, for eternity. Thank you Jesus! With deep sorrow, Daphne Adams
