“ Warren,

You came into my life as a stepfather when I was just 10 years old. Your love was unconditional. I have so many fond memories with you. You have been a solid rock and support system throughout my life. Giving me meaningful advice and a listening ear. Why did this have to happen, I keep asking myself. I never got to say goodbye. Your untimely death has my mom, myself, my family and especially my little brother, your youngest son, Rashaud Thomas Long, so very heartbroken. And even though I know you loved God and can assume you're with God, my selfishness makes it hard to cope with how permanent this ache feels. We had a big feast for Thanksgiving in your honor and you know I don't celebrate those holidays but I did so for you this year. You will forever be missed and in our thoughts, in our memories, in our hearts. Continue to watch over Rashaud and my mom. Thank you for being a friend, family and a father to me. We love you, Warren. May be at peace.

Love Always,

Olympia and family
