“ Uncle Warren was a good man with Big a ❤️

Who will never be forgotten.

He has sacrificed so much of himself for others.

He has now lit a way for his generations to see that what he was teaching them will give them hope, strength and to believe in themselves.

Uncle Warren may be gone from our sight, but never will be forgotten from our hearts.

*Rest in peace,
Uncle Warren*

“ I am the mother of one of the young men that Coach Warren coached on the Netburners AAU basketball team. Coach was a great coach and mentor to the players. He had a very kind demeanor, and was always very respectful to the players and to the parents. He was also very giving and generous. There were many times that he would pay for the players’ meals, required fees, and hotel rooms, if needed. He was a very unselfish man.

I am still thankful to this day for the love and leadership that he showed to my son, who always thought very fondly of Coach Warren.

May our God of all comfort be with Coach Warren’s family during this time bereavement, and allow them to carry and share the same torch of kindness, love, and generosity to others the way Coach Warren showed to everyone he met.

*Peace and love

“ We are sending our love to his family during this difficult time. However weeping may endure but joy will come in the morning.

I have very fond memories of Warren from High school football days. Not only was he a joyful happy spiritual guy but on the field no one wanted to go up against him. He was just physically a naturally gifted football player.

The density of his physical makeup scared everyone that went up against him and when he hit you he literally laid you out.

But then he was also the calm before the storm with such a sweet nature. His brother Todd and I (God rest his soul) went into businesses together and owned a restaurant in Stamford CT and Warren would pop in every now and then.

They both are resting well and Todd is waiting to see his bro. We will miss both of them and surely miss, as I called him BO the family man. Rest well bro we love ya.
