“ OH NO NO NO NO NO MY DEAREST FRIEND I MET THROUGH MARICE STAR. I MET WAYNE AROUND 2003/2004. I LAST SPOKE TO MR WAYNE IN 2017 THIS WAS MY FRIENDDDDD. I GOT TO SPEND A LOT OF TIME WITH MR. WAYNE. I AM DEEPLY HEART BROKEN. HE ALWAYS GAVE ME WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT. I REMEMBER WE STAYED THE NIGHT AT WAYNE’S HOUSE AND WENT OUT TO EAT WHEN I FIRST MET HIM. SUCH A HUMBLE SOUL AND A AWESOME MAN.. SLEEP IN PEACE MR. WAYNE.. MUCH LOVE FROM YOURS TRULY SOREAL..

“ I am saddened to note the passing of Wayne Garfield. I knew Wayne from the late 1960s/early 1970s in NY when he was working with the Voices of East Harlem. Was fortunate enough to to play with them one night. May Wayne’s soul be at peace.

“ I remember meeting Wayne in September of 1970 at PACE College in New York City. His group, The Voices of East Harlem had a hit song out at the time. He was bigger than life then, and always a dear friend.

“ I remember Wayne took several of us aspiring basketball players from East Elmhurst, uptown to Rucker Park. He was exclaiming about this player who was rocking the park, and that we had to see him! He piled about 6 of us in a small 4-door FIAT! It was so cramped, but that trip exposed us to the one and only, Julius "Dr. J" Erving! It changed my game, and my life; I couldn't believe the things he did on the court. Dr. J and Tiny Archibald were 2 of my favorite players, and I have Wayne, and our dear friend Gorman to thank for the experience. Rest in peace, Wayne, and I'll never forget your singing with the Voices of East Harlem, incredible!
Sincerely,
Bernard Rencher
