Mr. Wendall Baker

September 5, 2009

Celebration of Life for Mr. Wendall E. Baker of Lawrenceville, GA., will be held Saturday, September 12, 2009, 12:00Noon, at St. Timothy??s Episcopal Church, 2833 Flat Shoals Rd., Decatur. Father Lockett, Priest-In-Charge. He will lie instate at the church from 11:00AM until the hour of service. Interment Hillandale M Gardens. As a native of Guyana, Mr. Baker was proud of his native land. He later migrated to the United States where he gained employment as an Inmate Manager with the Lawrenceville Police Department. His long standing post awarded him the opportunity to gain a lifetime of friendship with his co-workers. His love lives in the heart of his wife Mrs. Mavis Baker and his legacy remains with his children, grandchildren, siblings, numerous extended family, The Lawrenceville Police Department and many dear friends.

Tribute Wall

LA

Please accept my condolences during your time of sorrow. May the God of all comfort grant you peace and hope. In his word, the bible, he has revealed something truly wonderful at Revelation 21:3,4,5. Faith in these words will help you in the days ahead. With the Almighty, all things are possible. (Psalms 83:18)

Lani - September 16, 2009 at 12:00 AM

DM

Our Deepest Sympathy to the Baker family. . . . Mrs Baker, Jackie, Pat, Michael and others. We have been neighbors in both Essequibo and Cove and John in Guyana and were like family. Mr Baker was a Great man. May God grant him eternal rest.Love, The Morris family.

Dorette Morris - September 14, 2009 at 12:00 AM

RS

We send our sympathy to members of uncle Allan's family and we share their loss. Uncle Allan was Pam's uncle on her mother's side. We are happy that Pam has been able to speak with uncle Allan before his passing. For my part, I am glad to make this entry on this guest book because uncle Allan, while on the Corentyne in Guyana, was a friend of my father, Jeremiah Nunes de Souza.

Richard & Pamela Nunes de Souza - September 14, 2009 at 12:00 AM

TF

We offer sincere sympathy and encouraging words from the Bible. God's Word assures us that: The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28, 29). Jesus said: Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me. (John 14:1)

The Parks Family - September 12, 2009 at 12:00 AM

BB

Our deepest sympathies go out to Ms. Mavis and family upon the loss of such a treasured man. He will not be forgotten as he left an imprint on our lives at the Lawrenceville Police Department, that can't be measured. We recall memories of Mr Wendall , with great joy and laughter...as he often times has excess to share, when others were in need of kind words, a caring hand, and smiling face. We will always love you Mr. Wendall, and are grateful that the Father gave us time to know you and love you. Until we meet again.....

Barbara, Wade, and Joshua Bledsoe - September 12, 2009 at 12:00 AM

AB

I have many great memories of Mr. Baker. He truely lived a life of witness to all of us at Lawrenceville PD. He did so much to take care of our needs and take care of our department.Also, to all those hundreds of inmates, how often he gave them an example of Christ every day. Mr. Baker, may you rest in the Father's love until we meet again.

Alan Blake - September 11, 2009 at 12:00 AM

TA

Mr. Baker, I can't begin to tell you how much I've enjoyed knowing you and working with you. You've been a great help to me, and I regret not telling you how much your words of wisdom and encouragement have meant to me these past 13 years of my employment. I wish I could have done more for you while you were here.....because you done so much for everyone while you were with us. I never heard you utter an unkind word and your smile was always present, even in times you probably didn't feel like smiling. I will miss you dearly my friend. You will be in my heart until the day comes when I will pass over where you've gone, and I will see you again.Your friend,Tim

Tim Ashley - September 11, 2009 at 12:00 AM

DR

Mr. Baker, You will truly be missed by your Lawrenceville Police Department family. You touched many lives with your bright smile, life lessons and words of encouragment. May your family find comfort knowing you are now at peace in Heaven with the Father.

Denise Rollison - September 11, 2009 at 12:00 AM

EB

The lost of a dear uncle has never been easy for me and the family. I am very sad to learn of the death of Uncle Alan, as fondly known by us.My deepest sympathy to Aunt Mavis and all the children especially Claude. We are thinking and praying for you all. May you find comfort in the thoughts that others care and may God help you to find even more comfort in the memories of your husband, father, and grandfather. Accept love from the family of his departed brother, Joseph especially myself and husband Victor.May his soul rest in peace.

Eileen Baker-Wright - September 10, 2009 at 12:00 AM

CB

Thanks for your support, love and inspiration. Now you can enjoy your life forever with your heavenly father. Love - Claude (Sr.)

Claude R. A. Baker - September 09, 2009 at 12:00 AM

SJ

You will be missed Uncle Allen... The Pain has ceased.

Sharene Jupiter - September 09, 2009 at 12:00 AM