

Mr. Wibert Smith

September 23, 1931 - February 6, 2025

With profound sadness, we announce the passing of our beloved husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, uncle, and friend, Wilbert Constantine Smith, who entered eternal rest on Thursday, February 6, 2025, at Piedmont Newton Hospital in Covington, GA, at the age of 93.

Tino or Smith, as he was fondly referred to by many, was born in Panama City, Panama Canal Zone, on September 23, 1931, to the late Henry Wilson Smith and Louise Hutchinson from Jamaica. He had four siblings who preceded him in death: Edna, Muriel, Harold, and Cecil.

He worked as a Petroleum Manager for the US Army - Canal Zone, Panama, for over 30 years and retired in 1999. He also had a passion for music; he studied music at Panama National Conservatory, played the piano, and had a tremendous voice as an Opera Singer and dramatic Tenor. After he retired, he became a Music Professor at the National Conservatory in Panama; he organized many Gala Concerts and Recitals. His musical path is extensive; he traveled and shared his gift with many.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Cecilia Smith, of 37 years.

Daughters Elizabeth Smith, Yolanda Farrell (Omar), Brenda Smith, Herica Stultz (Luis), Son, Karl Headley (Marie), and niece Ivonne.

Grandchildren Jahmar, Jovana, Janina, Julissa, Irina, Devaughn, Devin,
Anthony, and Christian.

Great grandson Joziah.

Rest in Peace, our beloved Smith; you will be missed dearly.
