“ To the Family of Wilfred "Pete" Ellison from The American Cancer Society Relay For Life in Dekalb County, Georgia. Pete was a first time Survivor in 2019 to participate in my event as a cancer Survivor. He was comfortable and amazed at how many people that were walking around the track that were still fighting the battle. I want to give a special tribute to him and his willingness to fight til the end. I will walk the Relay track in honor of Pete so that his candle flame will never be extinguished as long a we fight. Rest in Peace Pete and know that you fought a courageous fight. Thank you for your contribution to research.

Pete was a theif, that's the only truth he ever told me. He'll answer now, he should have stole his name back.

“ My fondest memory of my dear husband is the birth of our son who he named Immanuel (God with Us). HE is and has been, always! May our son grow in your spirit to be as kind, loving and endearing as you are! Until we meet again...rest peacefully and kiss our loved ones that you now join in the heavens above! I love you eternally!
