“ My condolences to Annie, Anna, and all of the Brightwell family. I remember the good times at Beulah and Light of the World Church. I, too, traveled the highways and byways with Will and the church. He was dedicated to the work of the Lord. Now he's received his promised crown for his labor. Rest, my friend. I'll see you later.

“ Elder Brightwell was a one of a kind gem. He was always supportive and comical. I recall when we went to Jamaica on a missions trip, our new way of greeting each other was "Yo Mon". After that trip, no matter where we were, he would always yell out "Yo, Mon" and it would cause me to chuckle. He developed a relationship with my husband as well and we would be sure to visit him during his hospital stays. We love his family dearly. We are praying for comfort, strength, peace, and continued joy.
