

William Beverly

January 29, 1955 - January 25, 2020

William (Bill) Edward Beverly was born on January 29, 1955 in New York, NY to the late Noah William Beverly and Doris Whitaker Beverly. He grew up in Harlem with one older brother, Charles. He moved to North Carolina as a teenager and graduated from Hillside High School.

Bill studied Electronics Engineering Technology at the Ohio Institute of Technology and upon graduation was employed by Western Electric. His work for Western Electric, A T & T, and Lucent Technologies took him around the world. Home was truly his favorite place next to Antigua and Scotland. Bill took pride in providing for his family, after traveling for more than twenty years he accepted an early retirement from Lucent Technologies but continued to work at Diebold Nixdorf for sixteen years. Bill loved family, friends, basketball, football and cars. He planned to fully retire later this year but God had other plans and called him home.

Bill prayed daily, God was in his heart. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife Brenda, children William II, Alyssa and Nolan, grandson, Aydin, mother, Doris, brother Charles, daughter-in-law Michelle, sister-in-laws, Gloria, Louise, Patricia, Sharon, Pamela, and Marie, brother-in-laws, Kevin and Johnnie, nephews and nieces, Chaz, Jerry, Chris, Dwayne, Tamila, Kevin IV, Jeffrey, Amelia, Pamela, Johnesha, Tiesha, Brian, Monique, Shanetta, Desmond, Kayla, Precious, great nieces and nephews, a loving host of cousins, uncles, aunts and life long friends.
