“ Dad was a wonderful father and he made me feel so accepted and loved! I had a conversation with him a couple of months ago while going through a very dark moment in my life and I know that God spoke through you to minister to me and assure me that God is in control, He sees all and will make things right! Thanks so much for being my DAD, I love you forever 🌹🙏🏻💕

“ William Arthur Cook was the best thing that could have happened after we lost our father. The past 16 years have been filled with tons of love, laughs and unbelievably side-busting zingers. He made mama happier than she’s eve been and for that my sisters Bridgette and Stephanie will remain grateful. And. the bond we shared yielded a genuine father-daughter connection. Dad always referenced me as his daughter - because I am! ”
