“ I know that we all have to go home to our father but this really hits and hurts me differently he thought me so much he was there for me during my spiritual journey he watched me grow he was there with and for me during my baptism we share the same birthday I'm going to miss his talks and laughing and how we try to beat each other to say happy birthday I looked at him as a uncle and he was my godfather Scofield I'm going to miss you like crazy and I know I'll see you again I'm sorry the selfish part of me wish you can come back but I know you are in a better place because you're with our father God lord and savior I love you dearly Scofield ❤️Keisha

“ My deepest condolences to the family of Mr. Corbin. You are truly missed by your City of Atlanta work family. It was an absolute pleasure to see you at work because of your energy, joy, and sense of humor. I thank God our paths crossed for you to share your stories with me. Rest well, Officer Scofield.

“ Officer Corbin was one of a kind! He will be missed! Most evenings at the end of my work day. Everyone was walking out together and he always said something that made you smile. Most days I needed that! Thank you for your fun sense of humor and for your happy days. (seems like everyday!)

“ William Corbin, aka "Scofield", as I, and all of his family and friends lovingly called him, was such a dear,sweet friend and neighbor of mine, during our times together, while living on Rosser Street, SW, along with his beautiful family(" His Sister, Joanne, niece & nephew, "Man and Nicole"), were all 3 of the best neighbors, that I had the pleasure of knowing. I will forever miss his infectious smile, his happy-go-lucky supportive, and encouraging spirit, that always spoke of love, caring, and understanding. Take your eternal rest, My friend, for your loving memory, will live in all of our hearts forever. With deepest condolences, Ms. Karen Denise Sims-West & Charlie "Mikey" West(former next-door-neighbors and friends, from 254 Rosser Street, SW,).

“ Matthew 5:4 states, "Blessed are they that mourn; for they shall be comforted." Schofield as we called him at the offices of WorkSource Atlanta was a joy to encounter. He was always so full of life, always had a smile and a "cold drink". He did not meet any strangers here. He spoke and talked to everyone with the same energy! We are all going to miss him but I, for I, am definitely heartsick at the thought that my friend is no longer going to grace us with his presence. He was security to us all, a friend to some and an absolute joy to others. I count myself as being one of the rare few that that he was all three to. I am missing your dearly, "Scholy-Scho".
