“ To The Family, We would like to share with you some encouraging words found in God's word the Bible. “Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not gaze about, for I am your God. I will fortify you. I will REALLY HELP YOU.” (Isaiah 41v10) These words are reliable and true. So Continue to “throw all your anxiety upon him (Jehovah God) because HE CARES FOR YOU.” (1 Peter 5v7)

“ To the Family: May the God of all comfort continue to sustain you as you all look ahead to the fulfillment of His loving resurrection promises. His Word assures us... Your dead ones will live.... They will rise up. ~Isaiah 26:19. Jesus himself said: I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. ~John 11:25. Keep in mind... God is faithful and always keeps his promises! ~Isaiah 55:11, John 3:16, Revelation 21:3-5

“ My heart goes out to my best male childhood friend William Cornell Culver. We were neighbors throughout our childhood. We were like brothers and sisters, there weren't many days we wasn't at each others house. We shared so many laughs, tears, and growing pains as little kids, classmates, and as young adults. As we grew up and moved on with our lives, we never grew apart. Whenever we would see each other we would catch up from childhood memories to where we were today in our lives. Cornell was a great person, smart, witty, greedy as I remember him. He sit by me everyday in elementary school, and ate my food because I never liked my food, he was always laughing and talking with his mouth full, telling jokes, he was such a fun person to be around. I was so proud of him and all his accomplishments in his life. I remember our last conversation some months ago and as usual we would always go back to our childhood days, we had the best time laughing at the stuff we use to do, he had a laugh like no other, just his laugh would have you cracking up. He was pretty sick but he had high hopes of getting better. I want to give his family my condolences, and to let you know how special he will always be to me, my special friend to the end. I will miss him so much, he will forever be apart of my memories. In comfore, I know how much he loved his entire family and children. His memories will be with me and cherished forever. God Bless
