“ I met Will 12 years ago at Mellow Mushroom and we became instant friends. He soon became a part of the family. I showed him football he showed me David Bowie. He was the first person to say yes to skydiving for my 40th. My wife Christina and Will were really good friends as well, so much so we brought him to her family's Christmas a couple years ago. Every one loved him. My kids have known him their entire lives and call him uncle Will. He would always role play (acting) with Ansley and bring Elias legos and talk to him about gaming. I can't imagine a world with out my friend, he was so funny and quick witted, he never missed a chance to make folks laugh. We have lost a good one. He will never be forgotten.

Love

Albin, Christina, Elias and Ansley

“ I will always remember William’s crazy sense of humor. He always had a way to make you laugh. He reminds me so much of one of my little brothers who was also around the same age. Karee and I often shared funny stories about the two of them, two brothers from different mothers....LOL

William will be missed. I am deeply sorry and saddened for the pain and loss that you are experiencing. Sending you healing prayers and comfort during this very difficult time.
