“ My Deepest Condolence to The Family & Friends of William “BaBa” Hall~
I had the Joy of growing up with William Hall, (b.k.a. BaBa). From elementary to Decatur High School. BaBa love to sing, and a voice he had until till his departure. He belong in a variety of singing groups along with Drano, Rudy, Alberry and more, we and my sister Teresa, friend Maxie and more would sit across the street and listen, hoping they would ask us to sing with them. As children, BaBa because another cousin we was happy to claim, waiting on the bus to school we all crowded on Betty Pl & 2nd Ave., we loved to see and hear BaBa in his “Ultra-Man character, as we watched Saturday morning cartoons. As early adulthood we all stay remained a close relationship, that when BaBa and Cathy Cobb decided to marry and they hung out with me and my spouse having precious memories to keep forever! In 1977 BaBa and Cathy welcoming their 1st Beautiful Baby named William Hall Jr., whom we called Jai, which Cathy moved away far causing a restrain relationship, which BaBa would keep on me until seen his beloved Jai, which was a pleasure and 2 or 3 grandchildren! As we grew older and apart, but when we did see each other time would stand still until we got caught up on the present time, then we would all pill up in BaBa’s car, I’m talking about 10 people, if they couldn’t fit it in, BaBa had no problem in retrieving them, then time to go visiting, drinking our wine, laughing and singing and our specialty, reminiscing about our childhood. BaBa you are certainly miss, but Never Forgotten ~ From your play Sister Pam & Family ~❤️🌸
